

RITE NOW @ ROP

As part of the kickoff for the “DJJ Dads” initiative, Florida Department of Juvenile Justice Secretary Eric Hall met with the young men of Oak Grove Academy on June 14 to discuss the importance of being an active and involved parent. The initiative will help support mentoring and outreach to fathers of juvenile justice-involved youth as well as youth who themselves are fathers.

Secretary Hall’s frank conversation with the students led to a impassioned conversation about the role and responsibility of being a dad. Mr. Hall also shared the Department’s vision to provide youth with enhanced parenting resources once they return to their home communities.
